RESOLUTION HONORING THE BERGEN VOLUNTEER CENTER ON ITS 50TH ANNIVERSARY

WHEREAS, the Bergen Volunteer Center was founded in 1966 to meet community needs through the power of volunteers. Its direct service programs organize volunteers to provide invaluable support to some of Bergen County's most vulnerable citizens. The Mentoring Youth program has recruited, trained and supervised volunteer mentors for children who have been abused or neglected; since 1978 Mentoring Youth has provided a trusted mentor to more than 3,700 children. The Mentoring Moms program recruits, trains and supervises mentors for mothers whose children are at-risk for abuse or neglect; since 1995 more than 500 mothers have been matched with a mentor. The Chore Service provides home safety repairs for senior citizens and the disabled free of charge through the volunteer efforts of senior citizens. The Business Volunteer Council organizes corporations to help eliminate hunger and illiteracy; and

WHEREAS, the Bergen Volunteer Center ensures that Bergen County has a pipeline of committed, civic leaders through its training programs: Bergen LEADS for adults and Teen LEADS and Ready-Set-Serve for young people. They also strengthen the nonprofit community by maintaining a database of volunteer opportunities, providing volunteer managers' training and the Expert Exchange workshops and webinars; and

WHEREAS, the Borough of Norwood has benefitted from the efforts of the Bergen Volunteer Center since 2010 in the following ways:

44 residents received safety repairs from the Chore Service

3 children received a mentor; and

WHEREAS, residents of the Borough of Norwood have supported the Bergen Volunteer Center since 2010 in the following ways:

3 served as Mentoring Youth mentors

25 supported the Bergen Volunteer Center with their philanthropy; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Council of the Borough of Norwood, County of Bergen, hereby honors the Bergen Volunteer Center for its 50 years of turning caring into action and knowing that the Bergen Volunteer Center is not getting old, it is just getting started.

BOROUGH OF NORWOOD
ORDINANCE NO. 16:14

An Ordinance Amending Chapter 233 the Code of the Borough of Norwood Titled "Zoning," Regarding Signs.

WHEREAS, the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Norwood is authorized to create and from time to time modify land use regulations consistent with the Municipal Land Use Law (N.J.S.A. 40:55D-1 et seq.), and the purpose of this ordinance is to clarify and better define some of the existing regulations that apply to signs in all zoning districts in the Borough, to confirm the Borough's continued intention to comply with the requirements of the first amendment to the United States constitution as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court in the June 18, 2015 decision in Reed v. Town of Gilbert, 135 S. Ct. 2218 (2015).

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Norwood as follows:

Section 1: Section 233-3(B) is amended to include or substitute the following definitions:

> Billboard Sign – A sign that directs attention to a business, commodity, service, or activity conducted, sold, or offered at a location other than the premises on which the sign is located.
> Business Sign – A sign that directs attention to a business, commodity, service, or activity that is sold, or offered, or manufactured on the premises on which the sign is located.
> Commercial Sign – Any billboard sign or business sign.
> Digital or Electronic Signs – Any sign that, in whole or in part, rotates, moves, produces noise or smoke, gives the illusion of movement, displays a video or other changing imagery, automatically changes, is animated or blinking, or has any electronic digital, tri-vision, or other animated characteristics resulting in an automatically changing depiction.

Governmental Sign – A sign erected and maintained pursuant to any governmental functions or required by any law, ordinance, or other governmental regulation.

Illuminated Sign – A sign lighted by, or exposed to, artificial light, either by light on or in the sign on directed toward the sign, other than neon signs.

Neon Sign – A sign consisting of glass tubing, bent to form letters, symbols, or other shapes and illuminated by neon or a similar gas through which an electric voltage is discharged.

Non-Commercial Sign – Any sign other than a commercial sign.

Political Sign – A temporary sign announcing or supporting political candidates or issues in connection with any national, state, or local election.

Private Sale or Event Sign – A temporary sign advertising private sales of personal property, including but not limited to house sales, yard sales, garage sales, rummage sales, or private non-for-profit group sponsored events such as picnics, carnivals, bazaars, game nights, art fairs, craft shows, and holiday tree sales.

Public Issue Sign – A temporary sign supporting a position on any public issue.

Real Estate Sign – A temporary sign pertaining to the sale or lease of the premises, or a portion of the premises, on which the sign is located.

Temporary Sign – A sign that is intended to be displayed for a limited period of time.

Sign – Any object, device, display, or structure, or part thereof, situated outdoors or indoors, that is used to advertise, identify, display, direct, or attract attention to an object, person, institution, organization, business, product, service, event, or location by any means, including words, letters, figures, designs, symbols, fixtures, colors, illumination, or projected images.

Section 2: Section 233-28 regulating the signs permitted in the residential zoning districts is amended to state:

§233-28. Signs Permitted.

A. The following signs are permitted in all residential zoning districts:

(1) A sign stating the name of the principal occupants and the street address of any private residential dwelling, not exceeding six square feet in area.

(2) A sign stating the name, street address, use, and profession of any person with a professional office that is permitted in a residential zone, not exceeding six square feet.

(3) A sign identifying a building address and legally permitted use other than a residential use and professional office not exceeding 16 square feet in area.

(4) Real estate signs not exceeding 16 square feet in area.

(5) Public issue signs not exceeding 16 square feet in area.

(6) Political signs not exceeding 16 square feet in area.

(7) Private sale or event signs not exceeding 16 square feet in area.

(8) Governmental signs not exceeding six square feet in area.

(9) Business signs for businesses lawfully operating in a residential zoning district, which will comply with the requirements for business signs in §233-33, except that the prohibitions in §233-28(B) will apply to these signs.

B. The following signs are prohibited in all residential zoning districts:

(1) Illuminated signs.

(2) Neon Signs.

(3) Digital or electronic signs.

Section 3: Section 233-33 regulating the signs permitted in the non-residential zoning districts is amended to delete section §233-33(G)(6) and (H).

Section 4: A new Section §233-33(H) is added to Section §233-33 regulating the signs permitted in the non-residential zoning districts as follows:

H. The following temporary signs are permitted:

(1) Real estate signs not exceeding 16 square feet in area.

(2) Public issue signs not exceeding 16 square feet in area.

(3) Political signs not exceeding 16 square feet in area.

(4) Private sale or event signs not exceeding 16 square feet in area.

(5) Governmental signs not exceeding 6 square feet in area.

Section 5: A new Section 233.23.2 is added to Chapter 233 of the Code of the Borough stating:

§ 233-23.2. Signs in All Zoning Districts.

A. Notwithstanding anything contained in any section of the Code to the contrary, any commercial sign with a commercial message may, at the option of the owner, contain a noncommercial message including a message that is unrelated to any business located on the premises where the sign is erected. The noncommercial message may occupy the entire sign face or any portion of the sign. The sign face may be changed from commercial to noncommercial messages or from one noncommercial message to another as frequently as desired by the owner of the sign, provided that the sign is not a prohibited sign or sign-type and provided that the size, height, setback, and other dimensional criteria contained in this Code have been satisfied, or the sign is a nonconforming structure as defined in this Code and the applicable law.

B. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Code to the contrary, no sign or sign structure is subject to any limitation based upon the content (viewpoint) of the message contained on the sign or displayed on the sign structure.

C. No person may place any sign other than a governmental sign in the public rights-of-way or on public property in the Borough.

D. Billboard signs are prohibited in all zoning districts.

E. All non-temporary signs that are permitted in the Borough and contain letters, numbers, or symbols in a language other than English also must include Roman lettering, symbols in an English translation, and Arabic numbers of sufficient visibility and substance to allow the reasonable identification of the location and means of egress and ingress from and to the premises, and the nature of the activity conducted therein, which is readily apparent to the public, emergency personnel, law enforcement personnel, and other municipal personnel.

F. All political signs will be removed no later than 11:59 p.m. of the third day after the election to which the signs apply.

G. All private sale or event signs will be removed no later than 11:59 p.m. of the third day after the sale or event.

H. All real estate signs will be removed no later than 11:59 p.m. of the third day after the closing of any sale or the execution of any lease for the premises.

I. All of the provisions of this Code regulating signs are intended to be severable. If any part of these provisions is declared to be unconstitutional or invalid by any court, the remaining parts will remain in full force and effect.

Section 6: All ordinances or parts of ordinances that are inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed, but only to the extent of any inconsistencies.

Section 7: The provisions of this ordinance are severable. If any part of this ordinance is declared to be unconstitutional or invalid by any court, the remaining parts of this ordinance will remain in full force and effect.

Section 8: This ordinance will take effect upon passage and publication in accordance with N.J.S.A. 40:49-2(d), and copies will be served on the County Planning Board and the Borough's tax assessor within thirty days of adoption.

BOROUGH OF NORWOOD
ORDINANCE NO. 16:16

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 172 OF THE CODE OF THE BOROUGH OF NORWOOD, TITLED "PEDDLING AND SOLICITING," TO MODIFY THE PROVISION AUTHORIZING A NO SOLICITATION LIST AND TO ADD A PENALTY PROVISION.

WHEREAS, the purpose of this ordinance is to revise Chapter 172 of the Code of the Borough of Norwood ("Code"), titled Peddlers and Soliciting, to clarify and modify the provisions authorizing the collection, preparation, and maintenance of a no solicitation list and to add a penalty provision.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Norwood as follows:

Section 1: Section 172-24 of the Code is amended to state the following:

§172-24. No Solicitation List.

A. The owners or occupants of residential property in the Borough who do not wish to be solicited for any purpose by peddlers, solicitors, transient vendors, junk dealers, or nonprofit organizations may so notify the Borough Clerk. The Borough Clerk will collect, prepare, and maintain a list of the addresses of those residential premises as to which the owner and/or occupant has notified the Clerk that soliciting and canvassing for any purpose is not permitted. The list will not include the names of the owners or the occupants of the properties. Property owners or occupants wishing to be included on the no solicitation list will complete a form supplied and maintained by the Borough, without cost to the applicant. The Borough Clerk will prepare a form for this purpose, which will be available to the public in the Borough Clerk's office and on the Borough's web site.

B. The Borough Clerk, or his or her designees, will submit the no solicitation list to the Chief of Police on a quarterly basis. The list will be distributed to applicants seeking a license pursuant to Section 172-2, to persons exempted by Sections 172-3 and 172-4, and to the representatives of nonprofit organizations seeking to engage in activities that are exempt from the licensing requirement pursuant to Section 172-5. The applicant will acknowledge, in writing, receipt of this list as part of the application or exemption process. No person may solicit or canvass at any address on the no solicitation list.

C. On or about January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1 of each year, the Office of the Clerk will update the no solicitation list. The Borough Clerk, or his or her designees, will forward the updated list to the Chief of Police for distribution to solicitors and canvassers. Nothing herein prohibits the more frequent updating of the list by the appropriate Borough official.

D. The Police Department will keep a list of all persons and organizations violating this Ordinance and may deny licenses to any person violating this Ordinance.

Section 2: A new Section 172-25 is added to the Code to state the following:

§172-25. Violations and Penalties. Any person convicted of violating the terms of this Chapter will be subject to the penalties set forth in Chapter 174 of this Code.

Section 3: All ordinances or parts of ordinances that are inconsistent with the provision of this ordinance repealed, but only to the extent of any inconsistencies.

Section 4: The provisions of this ordinance are severable. If any part of this ordinance is declared to be unconstitutional or invalid by any court, the remaining parts of this ordinance will remain in full force and effect.

Section 5: This ordinance will take effect upon passage and publication according to law.
